Dear Glassboro School District Families,

I want to personally welcome you and your children to the start of a new school year in the Glassboro School District.

School begins on September 8, and all of us are excited to greet your children as they begin full-day, in-person instruction. From the smiling faces I saw during several orientations, I know that our students are also eager to return to learning and see their friends.

Please remember that students and school employees throughout New Jersey must wear masks on the buses and in school buildings.

This August, many of you participated in our virtual meetings for parents. For those of you who could not participate, our administrators have addressed some of the most common questions that parents posed. You can find that information under headlines on our school district website, www.gpsd.us.

Thank you for your support of Glassboro Schools.

Sincerely,

Mark J. Silverstein
