

Grant Award (Title)	School/Sponsors	Awarded	Amount	Description
Seeds to Success Farmstand	Glassboro High School Kim Syversten	Jul-2011	$1,250.00	Program to build job experience and training for special needs students through running a summer farmstand.
Books on Nooks	Glassboro High School Linda Rorer	Jan-2011	$1,500.00	Program to increase reading interest and frequency using Nooks. Students familiar with electronic devices and books less expensive as downloads.
Fitness Award Program	Glassboro High School Lynlee Phillips	Feb-2010	$2,000.00	Re-starts the Presidential Fitness Challenge. Recognition program for best and improved performances.
Developing Self-Esteem	Glassboro Intermediate Pat Schmus	Oct-2009	$923.90	Establishes group of 6th-8th grade girls to problem solve issues related to boosting self-esteem. (Examples - healthy eating habits, appearance.)
Parents as Partners	Genesis Kelly Franklin Moxie	Mar-2009	$6,750.00	Continues summer enrichment program for Genesis kids and involves parents with kids in educational trips and follow-up learning. TD Foundation donated $5000, the GEF provided matching grant.
Bulldog Service Project	Glassboro Intermediate Ivanetta Jones Dave Davenport	Feb-2009	$2,000.00	Provides "at-risk" students with opportunity to participate in class activities through earning opportunities in the community. Purposes are to teach positive solutions and to involve in class/community activities.
Confident People Read	Glassboro Intermediate Charla Blum-Zeck Steve Behl	Feb-2009	$1,988.00	Students who can read often have difficulty responding to literature and feeling confident about their reading. Project will split students into gender-specific groups to read books with high interest levels, Group discussion to build confidence and ongoing reading interest to follow.
Low-Cost Nutritious Meals	Glassboro Intermediate Karen Peale	Feb-2009	$1,200.00	Problem is poor nutrition/eating habits influence student performance. Objective is to form group of disadvantaged children to learn how to make nutritious foods on a budget.
Spanish Student Exchange Program	Glassboro High School Patricia Yanez	Dec-2007	$2,000.00	The high school Spanish students wanted to start a Spanish student exchange program (similar to the French program). The grant provided seed funding for the first exchange group.
Arts &amp; Crafting Club	Glassboro Intermediate Wanda Chudzinski Mary Ann Evans	Dec-2007	$2,000.00	The program objective was to start a club in which interested students would learn arts and crafting skills and the career/business potential of crafting.
Readers Theater	Bullock School Steven Hempel	Dec-2007	$2,000.00	The program objective was to improve reading/reading aloud skills by combining with theatrical activities. The funding provided classroom tools and financial assistance for a culminating trip to a theatrical presentation.
Summer School Enrichment	Genesis Pat Thompson	Jun-2006	$1,000.00	Program to continue school year program and increase experiences of pre-school children through field trips.
It's a Big World After All	Genesis Pat Thompson	Dec-2005	$2,797.96	Program to increase experiences of pre-school children through field trips with planned learning activities around trips.

